

DRAFT

Honorable David E. Bell
Director
Bureau of the Budget
Washington 25, D. C.

Dear Mr. Bell:

This is in response to the Bureau's request of 30 June 1961 for the views of this Agency on a draft bill "To simplify, modernize, and consolidate the laws relating to the employment of civilians in more than one position and the laws concerning the civilian employment of retired members of the uniformed services, and for other purposes".

We have reviewed the Civil Service Commission's draft proposal and are in general agreement with the statement of purpose and justification. We believe that the enactment of legislation along the lines proposed by the Civil Service Commission would simplify the administration of what is now a confused and complex matter.

This Agency has no objection to the Civil Service Commission's draft bill but we would suggest that Public Law 53 of the 82nd Congress, which amends Section 5 of the CIA Act of 1949, as amended, be added to the list of laws which would be repealed by the draft bill.

Public Law 53 was enacted so that this Agency might employ up to fifteen retired officers to meet the particular requirements of the Agency, which would otherwise be prohibited under the provisions of Section 2 of the Act of July 31, 1894 (5 U. S. C. A. 62).

Inasmuch as the 1894 statute and other similar provisions of law <sup>would be</sup> ~~are~~ repealed by Section 303(a)(9), the authority provided in Public Law 53 <sup>would be</sup> ~~is now~~ unnecessary.

Sincerely,

Lawrence R. Houston
General Counsel

DRAFT

047
final

Honorable David E. Bell
Director
Bureau of the Budget
Washington 25, D. C.

Dear Mr. Bell:

This is in response to the Bureau's request of 30 June 1961 for the views of this Agency on a draft bill "To simplify, modernize, and consolidate the laws relating to the employment of civilians in more than one position and the laws concerning the civilian employment of retired members of the uniformed services, and for other purposes".

We have reviewed the Civil Service Commission's draft proposal and are in general agreement with the statement of purpose and justification. We believe that the enactment of legislation along the lines proposed by the Civil Service Commission would simplify the administration of what is now a confused and complex matter.

This Agency has no objection to the Civil Service Commission's draft bill but we would suggest that Public Law 53 of the 82nd Congress, which amends Section 5 of the CIA Act of 1949, as amended, be added to the list of laws which would be repealed by the draft bill.

Public Law 53 was enacted so that this Agency might employ up to fifteen retired officers to meet the particular requirements of the Agency, which would otherwise be prohibited under the provisions of Section 2 of the Act of July 31, 1894 (5 U.S.C.A. 62).

Inasmuch as the 1894 statute and other similar provisions of law <sup>would be</sup> ~~are~~ repealed by Section 303(a)(9), the authority provided in

Public Law 53 <sup>would be</sup> ~~is now~~ unnecessary, if that section is enacted

Sincerely,

Lawrence R. Houston
General Counsel

041 - Aded,

1 - O.P

1 - COMPT

1 - OGC

1 - CSC -

2 - LC

STAT